Banueam police Station

Announcement on Anti-Bribery Policy

and No Gift Policy from the performance of duties for fiscal year 2025

According to the Constitutional Prevention and Suppression of Corruption Act B.E.2561, Section 128, paragraph one, prohibits any public official from receiving property or any other benefit that may be calculated as income from anyone. other than assets or legitimate interests. rules or regulations issued by virtue of the provisions of law, except for the receipt of assets or other benefits by virtue of the rules and amounts prescribed by the Board of Directors. The NACC stipulates and the Code of Ethics for Police Officials B.E. 2564 (2021)Honesty and Integrity Comply with legal obligations Transparency of the Royal Thai Police Refrain from demonstrating behavior that implies exploitation or abuse and is responsible for human rights duties. Be ready for audits and accountability. and Article 2 (4) considers the common good more than the personal benefit. Public spirit, cooperation, cooperation, and sacrifice for the common good and creation for the benefit of society in conjunction with the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct (Revised Version)Define key reform activities Activity 4 Develop the Thai bureaucracy to be transparentand without benefits Goal 1Article 1.1 All government agencies shall declare as agencies that all government officials do not accept gifts and gifts of all kinds from performing their duties(No Gift Policy)The refore, in order to prevent conflict of interest bribery, gifts, gifts or any other benefits that affect the performance of duties, the Anti-Bribery Policy and No Gift Policy from the performance of duties have been established as follows:Article 1

This Notice"Supervisor" means the authority to command, supervise, monitor and inspect the police officers under him.

"Bribe" means property or any other benefit given to a person to induce him to act or not to act in office. Whether it is rightful or unlawful with duty.

"Performance of duties" means an act or performance of duties by a public official position appointed signed to perform any duty or to act on behalf of a particular duty,both general and specific, as a police officer whose powers and duties are prescribed by law or are acted in accordance with the authority specified by law to have the authority and duties of the police.

"Gifts or any other benefits affecting the performance of duties" means money,property, Any other services or benefits that are valued and include tips received by government officials in addition to salary. Income, government benefits in normal cases and influence decision-making approval or at the time of receipt or in the future.Article 2 Police officers at all levels shall behave. as follows

1. Do not ask, lead, give or not accept bribes, gifts, gifts or any other benefits from performing duties.

2. Do not consentor knowingly allow family members to give or accept bribes, gifts, gifts or any other benefits to those involved in the performance of duties.

3. The performance of duties must adhere to fair law enforcement, taking advantage of the interests and image of the police. Must not commit any act that may conflict between personal and public interests, such as accepting gifts or personal interests, disclosing inside information, obstructing official hours for special work, etc.

4. Reduce the giving or receipt of assets or other benefits by virtue according to the rules and amounts at the office. The NACC requires that expressions be made by signing greeting cards, greeting books, condolence cards, or using social media instead of giving items.

5. He won't. Not to lerated. Not indifferent. In case of any violation found in the Superintendent/Station Supervisor as soon as possible.

Article 3 The supervisor shall have the authority and duty to supervise, monitor and inspect the police officers under the subordinate to comply with this announcement. In case of any violation of this notice, report to the Superintendent/Station Chief as soon aspossible.

Article 4 Any person found to be in violation of this Notice. Complaints can be mad edirectly through Police Colonel Chaiyatrown Phadungkarn Superintendent of The information of the complainant/whistleblower will Be kept strictly confidential.

Article 5 In case of receiving complaints/clues Personnel affiliated with such offences at the police station will investigate the facts. If found guilty, the person who committed such act will be punished according to the law. and deliver the matter according to the hierarchy of command.

Announced on 1 January 2025

Police Colonel

(Chaiyatrown Phadungkarn)

Superinterdent Banueam Police Station